A complete file will be provided on arrival in Cambodia for complete information on typical restaurants and some practical info & off-the-beaten-track tours in order to preserve the originality of our tours.

Day 1: PHNOM PENH

Welcome at the airport.

Check-in at the hotel. Overnight in Phnom Penh.

Day 2: PHNOM PENH (B - L)

Photos: The Silver Pagoda

In the morning: visit the Royal Palace moved from the former capital Oudong in 1863; visit the Silver Pagoda (more than 5000 silver tiles decorate the ground where located the golden statue of Buddha Maitreya of 90 kg. Visit the central market renovated by France's donation.

At noon: authentic meal will be offered to you in a restaurant at the edge of the Mekong. The atmosphere is very local and off-the-beaten-track. One or several representatives of the agency will lunch with you. They will share with you their loves of the Cambodia.

Around you the Khmers sell: crickets, fruits of the village (longan, jackfruit, apple studs, and mango). Here few tourists but the Khmer life in nature.

In the afternoon, visit the National Museum formerly called the Albert Sarraut museum where the objects, statues and parts of arts come from all the Cambodian provinces. You will continue by visiting the Ounalom Pagoda built in 1443, which is the most important pagoda in Phnom Penh.

Colonial District (Option, if time permits and if you wish): the Grand Hotel, the Post office, the Bank of Indochina, the Police station, the Superior Residence, the Treasury Bridge, the Chamber of Commerce, the Library and the Railway Station.

Visit the Wat Phnom (Pagoda on the hill) renovated in 1926. At the foot of the hill is a bas-relief sculptured by Théodore Rivière to honor the Siam-French treaty.

In the evening, take a small cruise along the river bank towards Chroy Changvar peninsula (according to weather and time, sunset on the Royal Palace).

Overnight in Phnom Penh.

Day 3: PHNOM PENH – SIEM REAP (B)

7:00 Direction: Siem Reap situated in the most populous agricultural province of Cambodia.

By Road (Approximately 314km, 6h00 drive) or speedboat on the Tonle Sap river surcharge (between 5 and 6 hour in air-conditioned boat but rather uncomfortable). We asked if you want this second solution, no catering on board, no guide during transfer. Welcome by the guide upon arrival in Siem Reap.

Note: there are also weekly flights.

At Kampot: Quick city tour, you walk along the Kampot River where you can stop at one of the cafes' terraces that are generally of old colonial houses.

The Kampot region produces many tropical fruits especially the durian. We have the opportunity to go through the pepper fields; green pepper of Kampot is well-known all over the world.

During your trip you will have the opportunity to see a fishing village in edge of road.

Arriving in Sihanoukville, city tour by vehicle: the local market, the main beaches, the port...

Check-in at the hotel, free time.

In the evening, if you wish, you can be accompanied by your guide and vehicle to finish the day in good mood in a Khmer Tavern with local Orchestra or other more 'classic' restaurant.

Overnight in Sihanoukville.

Option with extra charge (consult with us): After Kampot, you will then take a road that crosses the dense jungle of the Bokor National Park (between 3 and 4 hours of journey). In this case no activity possible. Arrive in Sihanoukville.

Day 11: SIHANOUKVILLE - Ream (B-L)

8h00: Ream, a beautiful site where our boat will be waiting. You will embark and 30 minutes later you will arrive on a small island little frequented by usual tourists. (We keep this location as secret). On arrival we offer you a coconut to drink with a straw.

The activities that you can do on spot:

- Walk on the beach, visit a guesthouse where guests sleep in hammocks and wooden houses perched in the trees...
- Relaxing, resting and sunbathing on the beach...
- Spend some time to admire the coral area thanks to the masks and snorkels available in our boat.
- Do a lot of fishing using equipment provided by us for this purpose.

Back, around noon we'll give you a typical meal: Fricassee of green pepper crab, grilled shrimp and fish + rice soup prepared by Bopha, our chef. If her husband is not at sea (He is military at the naval base) you'll have more of cooked mussels, barbecued fishes in the same morning and cooked by himself.

* If you cannot stand the boat or for bad weather conditions:

- Drive back to Sihanoukville and visit small waterfall of Kbal Chhay after a good local lunch at the water's edge.

Or

- Transfer in vehicle over a beautiful continental beach in the region of Ream, meals in front of beach, a very good restaurant is on-site.

Afternoon free.

Nights in Sihanoukville.

Day 12: SIHANOUKVILLE - PHNOM PENH (B)

Free morning and departure for Phnom Penh. The schedule will be based on following your program (flight departure or continuation).

On the road: crossing oil palm plantation or Elaeis Guineensis which is a member of the Arecaceae family.

Toiletbreak at Yeay Mao, which will also allow you to learn a little more about beliefs and Khmer customs.
